

THE SCOTTISH SOCIETY FOR CONSERVATION AND RESTORATION

Visit to see the

Restoration of the Phoebe Anna Traquair Mural Paintings

Mansfield Traquair Centre, Edinburgh

Sunday 6th March 2005, 12:00pm

The mural paintings in the former the Catholic Apostolic Church are currently undergoing a 2-year restoration. This visit will include a guided tour of the church by the Friends of the Mansfield Church, followed by a unique opportunity to have a close look at the restoration work that will be taking place on the Great Chancel Wall.

Conservators from Historic Scotland will be on hand to talk about the condition of the murals and the processes involved in restoring them.

Visit will be £1.50 to cover costs. Donations for the restoration welcome.

Please contact Maeve Woolley (maeve@freeola.com) for further information (including how to get there), and to confirm your interest.
